3 Mar 2022, 16:42:33	Respondent 5	7	7	The topics are interesting and the way the hosts handled the scenario by making it funnier is something that intrigues the viewers more into staying in the stream. I like how they keep up with an uplifting yet friendly energy.	Yes	Yes	None, it was entertaining.	Your stream doesn't seem like you guys are late for paying your rent :D But seriously, you guys did a great job handling the situation and I really like how interactive you all were with the comments. Normally, events like this would look like a group project (as expected) and you were "required" to do it. To sum up, the stream is recommendable!

Yes	Maybe	As for me it would be the sloppy screen, it caused distortion and could ruin the focus of the audience but overall the livestream is fine.	SHEESH BRADAH
